ARTICLE II, The Department of Health; Administration and Enforcement
Sec. 873.200. The Board of Health; officers; meetings. [Added 11-20-1986, eff. 11-20-1986EN]

1. The board shall be organized and constituted as required by the provisions of the Public Health Law and the Charter of the County of Westchester.
2. The board shall meet ~~one day of each month~~ regularly, as fixed by the board.
3. The President or other presiding officer of the board may call special meetings thereof when, in his judgment, the protection, preservation or improvement of the public health of the county or any part thereof requires it, and as otherwise provided in the Public Health Law of the State of New York; in the event that a special meeting, in the judgment of the President or the president's designee, is required and there is insufficient time for the calling of an in-person meeting; the President or other presiding officer shall personally telephone the membership of the board and record the subject matter thereof, the member with whom discussion took place and the vote or response of such member of the board.
4. A majority of the 13 members of the board shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting of the board.
5. The board shall elect a President from among its members, who shall serve as presiding officer of the board.
6. The board shall elect a Vice President from among its members, who shall serve as presiding officer of the board in the absence of the president.
7. The board may adopt by a majority vote bylaws for the proper conduct of its affairs, election of officers and appointment of committees, not inconsistent with law.
