PEEKSKILL WOMAN ARRESTED ON DRUG AND WEAPONS CHARGES

PCP, cocaine and .38-caliber handgun found in Park St. home

A Peekskill woman was arrested on drug and weapons charges Wednesday night following a joint investigation by the Westchester County Department of Public Safety and the Peekskill Police Department.

About two months ago, the county police Narcotics Unit received information about possible drug dealing occurring at 1608 Park Street in Peekskill. Officers from the county police and the Peekskill Police Department narcotics units conducted an investigation and executed a search warrant at the residence last night at 7:30 p.m.

Seized were nearly 40 grams of PCP, two grams of powdered cocaine and a loaded 38-caliber handgun.

Arrested last night was Melissa Dabbs, 38, of 1608 Park Street, Peekskill. She will be arraigned in Peekskill City Court this morning.

Dabbs is charged with Third-Degree Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance (PCP), Fifth-Degree Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance (Cocaine) and Third-Degree Criminal Possession of a Weapon. All the charges are felonies.
