

FIGURE 14

- (1) Directly Observed Therapy (D.O.T.): A nurse or other health care worker observes tuberculosis patients ingest each dose of TB medication to promote adherence to treatment.
- (2) Directly Observed Preventive Therapy (D.O.P.T.): A nurse or other health care worker observes patients at high risk of developing TB ingest each dose of preventive TB medication.

Source: Westchester County Department of Health, Divisions of Disease Control and Community Health Services