

Westchester County Board of Legislators

FISCAL ANALYST - BOARD OF LEGISLATORS WESTCHESTER COUNTY, NEW YORK

Westchester County's Board of Legislators is currently searching for a Fiscal Analyst. Under general supervision, the successful candidate will participate in the review and analysis of fiscal matters, including but not limited to assisting and advising on departmental requests for funding, contracts and county budget development, oversight and management.

The Westchester County Board of Legislators is the legislative, policy-making branch of county government that has been in operation, in one form or another, for over 300 years. It is to Westchester what the US Congress is to the United States. The powers of the County Board of Legislators are enumerated in the County's charter. A key power of the Board concerns finances: appropriating funds, approving the budget and levying taxes.

The County's location is ideal, with the Long Island Sound on the southeast and the Hudson River on the west. It has retained much of its rural character, while adopting the urban and suburban lifestyles dictated by its close proximity to New York City. Urban and suburban, a unique blend of new and old, Westchester County is a great place to live and work.
