

ASSOCIATE DEAN - COMMUNITY COLLEGE (NATURAL AND HEALTH SCIENCES)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: Under the general direction of the Vice-President and Dean of Academic Affairs, the incumbent administers and monitors the planning, coordination, development and implementation of strategies necessary to meet divisional goals in accordance with established policies and procedures. The incumbent oversees the operations of six departments - Biology, Health and Physical Education, Respiratory Therapy, Food Administration, Chemistry, and Radiological Technology. Responsibility include establishing long and short-term fiscal and programmatic goals, participating in recruitment, selection and evaluation of faculty and staff, developing operating procedures and qualitative standards, identifying Federal and State grant opportunities and implementing funding, and supervising the preparation of the division's budget and expenditures. The incumbent regularly interfaces with a variety of administrators and representatives of advisory and interest groups to establish and maintain channels and resources for effective program implementation. Supervision is exercised over department and program directors/chairpersons, faculty and staff. Does related work as required.

EXAMPLES OF WORK: (Illustrative Only)

Oversees administrative and operative functions of the Natural and Health Sciences (N & HS) division to ensure compliance with policies and procedures and achievement of fiscal and programmatic goals;

Manages the administrative details of the unit to ensure that appropriate instructional assignments, recordkeeping and bookkeeping procedures are used;

Plans and coordinates the development and expansion of programs, and evaluates existing programs to ensure that interests and needs are met;

Establishes long and short-term goals for the division which are consistent with the College's objectives;

Approves the preparation of the schedule of instruction for the unit to ensure that the appropriate number and type of courses are offered;

Directs the recruitment, selection and evaluation of faculty and staff to provide quality educators and support staff;

Motivates professional development of employees and makes recommendations for dismissal, tenure or promotion;

Supervises the preparation of the division's capital and operating budgets and monitors budget expenditures to ensure compliance with spending policies and procedures;

Recommends new courses or programs to the Vice-President of Academic Affairs and develops strategies for recruitment in response to trends and interests;

Develops operating and teaching standards to outline and promote quality instruction and services;

EXAMPLES OF WORK: (Cont'd)

Identifies new State and Federal funding sources and implements effective disbursement procedures to optimize cost controls;

Acts as a hearing officer in student-faculty disputes and hears student appeals regarding probationary status or suspension;

Consults with department heads and program directors regarding resource allocation, program development, personnel issues, registration problems, etc. to integrate department functions and ensure conformity with the overall objectives of the division;

Serves on and works with a variety of community, advisory and academic committees, participates in conferences, seminars and workshops to broaden awareness of new educational opportunities, innovative instructional methods and specialized equipment and public interests and needs.

REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND ATTRIBUTES: Thorough knowledge of appropriate State and local laws, rules, regulations, agreements, policies, and procedures as they relate to the administration of education and training programs; thorough knowledge of the principles and techniques of administrative supervision and decision-making; thorough knowledge of program development, implementation and evaluation; good knowledge of business and government; ability to plan, implement and integrate operating policies, regulations and procedures; ability to identify problems, formulate and implement solutions; ability to efficiently and effectively manage; ability to communicate effectively orally and in writing; ability to evaluate the performance of personnel; ability to work cooperatively with related agencies, officials and personnel; leadership; sound professional judgment; integrity; initiative; tact; resourcefulness; physical condition commensurate with the demands of the position.

DESIRABLE ACCEPTABLE TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE: Master's Degree* and seven years experience in the planning and development of training programs, personnel administration or human development including three years in an administrative supervisory position.

*SPECIAL NOTE: Education beyond the secondary level must be from an institution recognized or accredited by the Board of Regents of the New York State Education Department as a post-secondary, degree-granting institution.