

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT
(School Districts)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: Under general supervision, incumbents of this class are responsible for assisting top level administrators with delegated non-secretarial administrative functions in support of a major department with district-wide responsibilities in a school district. Incumbent coordinates these activities with other departments, divisions, special committees and outside agencies to insure optimal delivery of student services, and to insure the most effective and efficient implementation of standards, regulatory requirements, policies and procedures. Responsibility also involves maintaining large, detailed databases using specialized software applications to track student information and to generate required reports by the NY State Education Department and other regulatory or funding agencies, as well as management reports required by district administrators. Incumbents conduct regular analysis and monitoring of information and operational activities, making recommendations or reporting trends requiring the attention of district administrators. The work involves frequent exercise of independent judgment in implementing policies and procedures. Supervision is exercised over clerical support staff. Does related work as required.
