

Hanging Out, Hooking Up, or Going Out: What's Really Going on With Teen Relationships?

Friends with benefits, dating, hooking up, going out . . . Teen relationships have become more confusing than ever and things are still changing. Join us for a discussion on cutting through the hype and looking at what is really up with adolescents today. We'll talk about what influences teens, the changing climate of teen romance, and how we as adults and professionals can help give teens the messages, skills and information they need to make healthy choices.
