

Your Program Name's LOGIC MODEL

Client and System Conditions	Major Program Components - STAFFING→	Program Activities Provided by Staff				Process Milestones	Immediate Client Outcomes	Long Term Client Outcomes
		Staff Title Replace	Staff Title with	your own Staff Title	Staff Title
What makes a client eligible for your program? Who is the program designed to serve? What problems or needs is the program designed to address? In general, what strengths and resources do the clients bring to the program? Describe the system conditions that led to the need or opportunity for the program: gaps in the services delivery, new policy, new funding...	What are the major program components? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Consider components from referral through termination and post-program or aftercare services. •How would you categorize or label the service activities provided to the clients? • In the next columns under "activity" line up the activities that the indicated staff are responsible for, that are included within the relevant component(s). 	What activities occur within each major program component? for each activity→→	a) Who provides this service? b) Where is the service provided? c) Is the service activity based on a theory, value or practice principle? d) Include contract performance and service standards.			What do successful clients "look" like at the end of the program / contract year? What changes in behavior, knowledge and/or attitude would you expect to see at the end of the program? (Try to connect the Activities to the Outcomes they are intended to produce) Include contract outcome standards.	What do successful clients look like after program closing? How long after program closing would you expect to see this change sustained? Include contract outcome standards.	